

HOME | NEWS | CLICK HEAR | ARTICLES | MUSIC REVIEWS | MOTION REVIEWS | MUSIC SCHOOL | CONTESTS | CONTACT | EXCLAIM! RADIO | EXCLAIM! TV

DESTINATION OUT
EXPERIMENTAL & AVANT-GARDE REVIEWS

JUL 2009

The Toronto Jazz Orchestra
The Path
By Glen Hall

Tight, swinging and passionate, the TJO have clearly spent their time rehearsing these demanding charts to make them sing. Even the high register trumpet lines come off well executed, phrased with finesse and attention to every articulation mark. And there are some strong solos, as on "Cereal Blocks," with muscular tenor sax solo from Michael Carter and astute piano by Ali Berkok, whose presence is felt throughout the ten-track CD. You'd think vocalist Kurt Elling's lyrics would be the best part of "Esperanto" but although his words are ponderous and un-mellifluous, Sophia Perlman delivers them in her forceful, smoky alto and then kicks the riff-y tune into high gear with some compelling scatting. While a couple of solos don't quite achieve lift-off, most tunes feature vigorous blowing. Leader Josh Grossman's puckish flugelhorn on "Chazz" and Mark Laver's (of the See Through Trio) nimble soprano on "The Call" definitely get airborne. A standout composition arrangement by non-TJO member Erik Patterson is "Happy at Sad Things," with snappy contrapuntal parts and wicked sax lines. Recorded at Humber College's state-of-the-art studio, the sound and sectional balance are flawless. Nice work from top to bottom. (Independent)

Destination Out Rss Feed
 Digg This Story
 Get Destination Out on your phone

DESTINATION OUT ARCHIVE

SEARCH

GO!

DESTINATION OUT

MORE DESTINATION OUT

JUL 2009

Torngat - La Petite Nicole

There's so much distortion emanating from Montreal trio Torngat's new album it's as though their latest songs were captured in a factory, accompanied by whirring machinery and emotional unrest. Distance and separation have been utilized by the band previously, however they've never been more eager t ...Read More

Delhi 2 Dublin - Delhi 2 Dublin

Combine the Indian drums (tabla, dhol) and sitars of the subcontinent with driving Irish fiddles and toe-tapping Celtic progressions, keep the dynamics fluid with bhangra world beat soundscapes and you've got Delhi 2 Dublin. The Vancouver-based electronic world fusion quintet's first studio release ...Read More

Anduin & Jasper TX - The Bending of Light

- Calle Debauche - Calle Debauche
- Comfort - Sleep Talking Shared
- DarkBlueWorld - The Perilous Beauty of Madness
- Evan Parker - Saxophone Solos
- Gordon Allen / Frank Martel / Michel F. Côté - All Up In There
- Gypsophilia - Sa-ba-da-OW!
- Hecker - Acid in the Style of David Tudor
- Jeff Younger's Sandbox - The Nudger
- Jim O'Rourke - I'm Happy, And I'm Singing, And A 1, 2, 3, 4
- Jozef Van Wissem - It Is All That is Made
- Land of Kush - Against the Day
- Leverton Fox - Country Dances
- Michael Snow - 2 Radio Solos
- Milo Fine - Anake
- Pink Saliva - Danse avec Robert Duncan
- Schweizer Holz Trio - Love Letters to the President
- Simeon Abbott - Zebra Wood: Prepared Electric Guitar Improvisations
- Sound for the Organization of Society - Poem of the Underground
- Sun City Girls - Napoleon & Josephine (Singles Volume 2)
- Various Artists - Spectra: Guitar in the 21st Century
- Wet Cookies - Soul Protection
- Whisper Room - Birch White

bearsuit turns two

the coast

the meligrove band

the narrative

girl + the machine

brent randall and his pinecones

emma-lee

sept 16th

el mocambo

brought to you by